Godly Play & Wednesday Night Fellowship

Godly Play

Happy New Year! I'm looking forward to the start of Godly Play again! Our first class of the year will be on January 5. We will NOT meet on January 12, as that is Confirmation Sunday, and we will have one service at 10:00 a.m. I hope you will join us on January 19, when all three classes will come together to hear the Baptism story, which will be told by Jean Smith. January 26 will be a regular class day. If you are interested in learning more about becoming a doorperson, please let me know. I am looking for a few more people to join us next year.

Wednesday Night Fellowship

If you haven't been to Wednesday Night Fellowship yet, join us in the new year! We gather for dinner at 5:30 p.m., and programming for children and adults begins at 6:00 p.m.

January is our "Month of Mission," so the children will be working on various service projects for and in our community.

Adults will have a Milestone, Lectio Divina, bake cookies for Soups On Us, and have fellowship time. I hope your family will join us!

Church Events

Soups On Us is Saturday, January 11. Join us from 9-11 a.m. and help feed the hungry in Boyle County. There are jobs for all ages, and the nursery is open for little ones.

Our first Parents Night Out of the year will be Friday, January 17, 5:30-9 p.m. Drop your kids off for fun and fellowship at church. As always, we'll have dinner, a movie, a craft, and games. Also, please consider joining us! We need lots of volunteers! RSVP on Facebook, or let me know if you or your children will be there.

Pastor Caroline Kelly and Pastor Amy Meaux have been leading a book study on Rachel Held Evans' book "Inspired" at our church every other Tuesday, 9:30-10:30 a.m. This month's dates are January 14 and 28. Don't worry if you haven't been yet. Come join us! Childcare is provided in the nursery.

Community Events

The library will be holding a community blood drive on Wednesday, January 8, 11:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. in the community room.

There are three Starry Night Studio classes at the Art Center of the Bluegrass this month. Thursday, January 9, 6-9 p.m., you can paint The Ballerina with Lela Germann for $35. Sunday, January 19, 2-4 p.m., paint Mugs and Mittens with Lela Germann for $28. Join instructor Paula Whitaker at The Still at Ambrabev on Tuesday, January 21, 6-8:30 p.m. to paint Brazilian Sunrise. The cost is $40.

The Norton Center offers a couple shows this month. On Friday, January 17, at 7:30 p.m., Shakura S'Aida will be performing with special guest Chuck Campbell.

Experience the unique glamour of the Shanghai Ballet as they perform "The Butterfly Lovers" on Sunday, January 26, at 7:00 p.m.

Devotions

This year I am looking forward to reading through the Bible with my children. In looking online for a Bible reading plan for kids, I found Foundations for Kids: A 260-day Bible Reading Plan for Kids. It's 260 days because it's just five days a week. Somehow they must know that we're not perfect and might not get seven days of reading in each week! I have ordered the book, and I would be happy to share it with you. It uses the acronym H.E.A.R., which stands for Highlight, Explain, Apply, and Respond. Kids will study God's word and memorize a verse, read an explanation of the verses, work an activity to help them apply the Bible truth, and have the opportunity to respond in prayer.

Also, I have been using an app called d365, which has devotionals 365 days a year. There are five sections: pause, listen, think, pray, and go. You can read it and reflect in silence, or you can turn on the music. It just takes a few minutes a day and is a great way to start the day.

Finally, be on the lookout for some Taking Faith Home devotional sheets from Milestones Ministry. These include Bible readings, daily devotions, caring conversations, prayers and blessings, and rituals and traditions that you can do as a family at home each week.
