Godly Play & Wednesday Night Fellowship

Godly Play

Thank you to everyone for bringing your children to Godly Play each week! With the year quickly coming to a close, we will only have two classes this month - December 1 and December 8. We'll see you and your children in class again on January 5. Merry Christmas!

Wednesday Night Fellowship

If you haven't been to Wednesday Night Fellowship yet, join us in the new year! We gather for dinner at 5:30 p.m., and programming for children and adults begins at 6:00 p.m.

January is our "Month of Mission," so the children will be working on various service projects for and in our community.

Adults will have a Milestone, Lectio Divina, bake cookies for Soups On Us, and have fellowship time. I hope your family will join us!

Church Events

Christmas Craft Night is Wednesday, December 4! We'll have a spaghetti dinner at 5:30 p.m. Then we'll make crafts from around the world, including Germany, Sweden, Holland, Norway, and Mexico! The evening will conclude with worship, as we prepare for the birth of Christ. Please join us!

Soups On Us is Saturday, December 14. Join us from 9-11 a.m. and help feed the hungry in Boyle County. There are jobs for all ages, and the nursery is open for little ones.

The children will present the Christmas pageant "A Brand New Star" during the 11:00 a.m. service on Sunday, December 15. After the service, join us in the Fellowship Hall for cookies and punch. If you can bake a couple dozen cookies, please let me know. Thanks!

The choirs of our church and Trinity Episcopal Church will perform Handel's masterwork Messiah in our sanctuary on Sunday, December 15, at 6:00 p.m.

Pageant Information

We have two more rehearsals left before the Christmas pageant! The children will meet in the sanctuary on Wednesday, December 11, during Wednesday Night Fellowship, and Saturday, December 14, 1:30-3:00 p.m. The pageant will take place on Sunday, December 15, at the 11:00 a.m. service.

Community Events

Danville Christmas Tree Lighting and Parade - Saturday, December 7. The Advocate Brass Band and Danville Children's Choir will perform at 5:40 p.m. at Weisiger Park, followed by the tree lighting in front of the courthouse at 6 p.m. The parade begins at 7 p.m.

Thursday, December 12 is Kids Shopping Night. Stores in downtown Danville will stay open until 7 p.m.

Get your picture taken with Santa Saturday, December 14, 1:30-3:30 p.m. at The Boyle County Public Library!

Fruitcakes, featuring Robin Voss, will be playing at the West T. Hill Theater December 5-8 and 12-15. Go to their website for tickets.

Under The Streetlamp will perform at the Norton Center on Friday, December 6, at 7:30 p.m.

Advent

Christmas shopping, Christmas parties, wrapping gifts, writing Christmas cards, visiting Santa Claus, baking cookies...

This time of year can get so busy that instead of the joy and happiness we're told we are supposed to be feeling, we are overwhelmed, frazzled, and just plain tired. It is easy to lose sight of the true meaning of Advent, the time when we wait for the birth of our Savior. I don't mean to add more to your to-do list, but as Caroline mentioned in her article for the Salt Shaker, there is a wonderful Advent devotional series called Following the Star. You can find it at <https://d365.org/subscribe-following-star/>. I hope you will take some quiet time to yourself each day to read over the devotion.

In the Advent bag I gave most of the children, there is a count up to Christmas calendar with stickers and a book. On the back of the calendar, there is an activity you can do as a family each day. I hope that you will read the book and spend a few minutes talking about the meaning of the season together. I wish you all a peaceful Advent and Christmas.
